

HEADQUARTERS 372ND INFANTRY
OFFICE OF THE REGIMENTAL COMMANDER

Fort Dix, N. J.
April 18, 1941.

Mrs Effa Manley,
101 Montgomery Street,
Newark, New Jersey.

My dear Mrs Manley:-

In reply to your letter dated April 14, 1941, you are advised that the motor movement from Fort Dix to Newark and return on Sunday, May 11, 1941 will approximate 50 officers, 801 Enlisted men and 101 Motors, as of this date.

You are further advised that the regiment is receiving each week a small amount of its organic vehicles which will allow us additional personnel, and that the actual total will be forwarded to you on May 5, 1941.

Trusting that this information will be of assistance to you in the formulation of your plans, and that I will have the extreme pleasure of seeing you at least once before your opening, I am

Very sincerely yours,

Alexander R. Davis
ALEXANDER R. DAVIS,
Lt. Col. 372nd Infantry,
Executive.

P.S. The Colonel is in receipt of the copy of letter forwarded to Col. Mark O. Kimberliny, Supt. N. J. State Police. Please forward confirmation when received.
